

Digital Creative Team Conditions of Application

Kaisercraft are on the lookout for a brand new Digital Creative Team! To submit, please email the following information to digital@kaisercraft.net the email subject 'Digital Creative Team Application'.

1. Tell us a little bit about yourself and your digital scrapping style in a single paragraph.
2. Tell us why you think you would be an asset to the Kaisercraft team.
3. Include a photo of yourself and a link to your online gallery or blog that shows samples of your various digital scrapbooking projects.
4. Complete and attach clear photos of:
 - A digital layout of yourself;
 - A digital layout using the free Kaisercraft digital collection 'Tag This', available for free download at https://www.kaisercraft.net/digital/index.php? a=viewDoc&docId=9
 - Some examples of hybrid scrapping (if you have done this before).
5. Include your name and contact details.

All digital images submitted must show your usual digital scrapbooking style.

Note: All entries must be sent to digital@kaisercraft.net by midnight Friday the 30th October 2009 (AEST). Those selected will be notified via email.

If selected to be a part of Kaisercraft's Contributing Digital Design Team, your responsibilities (aside from having a lot of fun on the computer), will be to complete:

- At least 1 digital layout in each collection available for purchase on the Kaisercraft Digital website.
- Submit digital layouts and projects in digital collections specified to you by Kaisercraft by a specified time and date, as agreed by each design team member and Kaisercraft.

You will also need to:

- Establish a blog to showcase Kaisercraft work.
- Become a member of Kaisercraft's online forum and gallery – and actively participate in forum discussion and upload DT work to gallery.
- Give permission for Kaisercraft to publish/post/use members' projects for advertising and editorial in various marketing collateral including Kaisercraft's website, blog, newsletter, magazine and other affiliated magazines etc.
- Not publish/post on personal blogs of projects and/or products until specified by Kaisercraft.*
- Must not sell or distribute work and/or designs for their own profit, or for their own promotional purposes unless appropriate credit for Kaisercraft and the digital range is displayed (where possible with the Kaisercraft digital website link).
- Agree to not publish/show products before their official release date.
- Submit all images of work as high quality jpegs, or when required, take high quality, clear, respectable photos of work on a white background, unless otherwise specified.
- Be available to complete magazine editorial projects if requested.
- Be available on request (if applicable) to be available for craft shows and/or exhibitions.
- Agree that some projects may need to be sent to Kaisercraft for photography and display/use in shows and exhibitions – please note these may not be returned for up to six months.

*Note: Members must not publish work anywhere else until notified by Kaisercraft. Once permission has been given, projects must be uploaded to the Kaisercraft gallery under your sign-in name, onto your blog and shared with others appropriately.

If you have any questions, please email digital@kaisercraft.net or visit the Kaisercraft forum, <http://www.kaisercraft.net/forum> to find out more